

An Account of the Life and Death of Mrs. Elizabeth Bury

Table of Contents:

Foreword

Preface

Notes on Orthographical and Typographical Changes

To the Reader – Rev. Samuel Bury

To the Dear Relations and Friends of the Deceased

An Account of the Life and Death of Mrs. Elizabeth Bury

- Of her Birth, Parentage and family
- Of her Natural Temper, Parts and Genius
- Of her Conversion, and the Earliness of it
- Her Diary
- Of her Christian Virtues and Graces
- Of her Walking with God
- Of her Behavior with Others
- Of her Afflictions, Losses and Difficulties
- Her Redemption of Time
- Her Changes of Life, and Relative Duties
- Her Veneration for the Ministry, and Love to Ordinances
- Her Concern for the Common Interest of Religion
- Her Usefulness to the Bodies and Souls of Others
- Her Reproving, and Taking Reproofs
- Her Steady Adherence to Protestant Dissenters

- Her Work on Sabbaths, and at Sacraments
- Her Private Devotions
- Of her Motto
- Her Preparations for Death, clear Evidences and Strong Consolations
- Her last Sickness and Death
- Letter to Rev. Samuel Bury from Rev. Isaac Watts
- An Elegy – Rev. Isaac Watts

Her Diary (1690-1720)

Her Miscellaneous Papers

Her Letters

- To an impatient under crosses
- To one on the death of a child
- To one in doubt whether the certain knowledge of a Christian's state is attainable in this life
- Against disputes in religion amongst young ones
- Directions how to instruct a child
- To one under great dejection and desertion
- To a relation on a fine lady of mean sense
- On the death of an intimate friend
- Cautions against spiritual declensions
- Pleading of God's Covenant urged
- Cautions to a friend about marrying
- On the death of a good Lady and friend

- On a tradesman's casting up his shop
- Upon the death of a sister
- To one under great afflictions and spiritual fears
- Various dispensations argued and justified

Letter to Rev. Samuel Bury from Rev. William Tong

Funeral Sermon – Rev. William Tong

The Dying Pastor's Last Legacy to his Flock – Rev. Samuel Bury

The Last Will and Testament of Samuel Bury

The Last Will and Testament of Griffith Lloyd

Bibliography

Index

Reformation Heritage Books