

Welcome to you,
to our class Christmas play.
My name is Sam –
your narrator today.

And I'm playing Mary –
the star of the show!
Everyone comfortable?
Ready? Let's go!

I stroll on the stage
past the tall Christmas tree,
the whole room of parents
all looking at ME...

Hey! Who put that there?
Right there in the way!
Why's there a tent in my class Christmas play?

Ladies and Gentlemen, that Christmas time
the high King of heaven left riches behind,
and like God was camping, with no pride or fuss,
he came down from heaven
and lived among us.
