

No Other God

Contents

Preface

1. What Is Open Theism?
 - The Rhetoric and the Reality
 - The Openness of the Sovereign God
 - Sovereign Vulnerability
 - The Ambiguities of Open Theism
 - The Open-Theist View of Traditional Theism
 - The Main Contentions of Open Theism
2. Where Does Open Theism Come From?
 - The Antiquity of Open Theism
 - God and the Greeks
 - Socinianism: the Missing Link in Open Theism's History
 - More Recent Influences
 - What Is New About Open Theism?
3. How Do Open Theists Read the Bible?
 - Logic
 - Models
 - Straightforward Exegesis and Anthropomorphism
4. Is Love God's Most Important Attribute?
 - Love, Sensitivity, Responsiveness, and Vulnerability
5. Is God's Will the Ultimate Explanation of Everything?
 - The Natural World
 - Human History
 - Individual Human Lives
 - Human Decisions
 - Sins
 - Faith and Salvation
 - Summary Passages
6. How Do Open Theists Reply?
 - Universalizing Particulars?
 - Divine Foreordination Versus Human Responsibility?
 - What Kind of Election?
 - How Can God Act "Now" If He Acts "Always"?
 - Other Open-Theist Objections
7. Is God's Will Irresistible?
 - Antecedent and Consequent Wills
 - Decretive and Preceptive Wills
 - Sanders's Distinction

The Efficacy of God's Will

8. Do We Have Genuine Freedom?

A Critique of Libertarianism
Other Kinds of Freedom
The Problem of Evil

9. Is God in Time?

Arguments Against Divine Atemporality
Philosophical Arguments for Divine Supratemporality
Scripture on God and Time
God's Temporal Omnipresence

10. Does God Change?

A God Who Relents
How Is God Unchanging?
Unchangeability and Temporal Omnipresence

11. Does God Suffer?

Aseity
Does God Have Feelings?
Is God Ever Weak?
Does God Suffer Death in Christ?

12. Does God Know Everything in Advance?

Divine Ignorance in Scripture?
God's Exhaustive Knowledge of the Future

13. Is Open Theism Consistent with Other Biblical Doctrines?

Biblical Inspiration
Sin
Redemption
Assurance
Heaven and Hell
Guidance

14. Conclusion

Bibliography

Index of Scripture

Index of Names