Lead Me to Zion

“Heather has done a great job in putting this material together. The curriculum is well written, theologically carefully, and thoughtfully organized. I trust it will be a blessing to many.”

Kevin DeYoung | Senior Pastor of Christ Covenant Church | Matthews, NC

"I am always excited to learn about a new resource for children that teaches them about covenant theology. As I read, Lead Me to Zion, my excitement grew as Heather took me from creation to the consummation, from the covenant of life to the covenant of redemption, pointing me to Christ at every turn. I am eager for children (and their teachers!) to learn about the covenants from this easily accessible, yet comprehensive, curriculum with activities that will suit every kind of learner."

"In Lead me to Zion, Heather Molendyk has produced another amazing gift for the church and for children's teachers in many different settings. Just as she did in Building Little Pillars, here she has taken foundational Biblical truths and packaged them into bite-size pieces for children, complete with lots of active learning ideas and easy-to-implement activities. Even better, these lessons give children a framework to understand how the Bible fits together as the story of God's steadfast love for His people, centered on the person and work of Christ, and ongoing through Christ's body, the Church. These lessons are not here simply to fill time or impart knowledge, but to shape better readers of the Bible and lovers of Jesus."

Jimmy Brock | Pastor | Resurrection Community Church

What is the Bible all about? Why did Jesus have to die? Lead Me to Zion answers those questions for kids aged 4-8 years. This 40-lesson curriculum teaches the story of God's redemptive plan for his people through His covenantal promises throughout Scripture. Lesson stories draw from the entirety of God's Word, from Genesis to Revelation, revealing God's unending love for His people. Even the youngest of learners will be drawn in by the story narratives that bring the Bible to life. Songs, catechism questions and activities are included with each lesson to reinforce the teaching. Lead Me to Zion may be used by parents as part of family worship in the home or for homeschooling. In the church, it could be combined with the companion Building Little Pillars or the Teach Me to Worship materials as part of a curriculum rotation for Sunday School or Children's Church. Lead Me to Zion helps children see who God is and all He has done for us, His people.
